REPORT TO MOSAIC MENNONITE CONFERENCE

Summer 2022

At MennoMedia we publish curricula and books that call readers to follow Jesus in word and deed. We publish resources about Christian discipleship, spirituality, reconciliation, justice, and theology from an Anabaptist perspective. Our curricula, periodicals, and hymnals reach a broad spectrum of evangelical, mainline, and Anabaptist readers and congregations, cultivating passion for faith formation and an active life of discipleship.

NEW RESOURCES FOR THE ENTIRE CHURCH, FROM HERALD PRESS

Disarmed

The Radical Life and Legacy of Michael "MJ" Sharp
Michael "MJ" Sharp was a modern Mennonite armed with wit and intellect, but not a gun. At 34 years old, MJ was working in the Democratic Republic of the Congo—urging rebels to lay down their weapons—when he was murdered. This gripping account explores what compelled MJ to travel the world working for peace and the impact of his life and death in the ongoing story of Christian peacemaking.

Jesus Takes a Side

Embracing the Political Demands of the Gospel

In a world divided by left and right, red and blue, many Christians have upheld a "third way" approach in pursuit of moderation, harmony, and unity. But if Christians are more concerned with divisiveness than with faithfulness, we have failed to grasp the gospel's political demands. Author Jonny Rashid lays out the political demands of following Jesus and offers strategies for how to engage politics practically and prophetically.

To Be Made Well

An Invitation to Wholeness, Healing, and Hope

Some of us live with physical pain, and others harbor the emotional pain of loneliness and shame. The gospels brim with stories of Jesus healing people, but what does that mean for us today? Author Amy Julia Becker weaves together her own story with reflections on biblical accounts of Jesus' healing work, providing fresh insight into both the nature of healing and the pathway to healing, then and now.

When We Belong

Reclaiming Christianity on the Margins

We need belonging to survive and thrive. When it feels as though there's no place left to belong, Jesus invites us into a love that knows no bounds and a community that truly liberates. In this hope-filled book, author Rohadi Nagassar brings the margins to the center to help readers rediscover a reality of love, belonging, and beauty through the journey of deconstructing, decolonizing, and reclaiming faith.

SHINE: LIVING IN GOD'S LIGHT

Welcome children and youth to a place where they are known and loved, where their questions are taken seriously, and where they can gather to hear God's story and together find meaning for their lives. Shine guides children and youth to stretch and grow toward God's light, and then shine that light to others.

For those raising children in the Anabaptist tradition, the importance of teaching impressionable, curious hearts and minds about faith from an Anabaptist perspective is essential. Whether you are looking for Sunday curriculum, faith formation activities for families, or whole-church experiences around the biblical story, Shine has options to suit your church's needs.

Shine equips children to

- Grow in relationship with Jesus
- Explore God's story together
- Serve one another

Sunday school that lights the way.
